JULY PRESIDENT'S NOTE

Happy Summer Everyone!

I've heard of a few people who have already been traveling earlier this season and I'm sure that more of you have trips, large and small, coming up. My hope is that everyone has wonderful vacations and that your travels are safe.

Fun Monday Raffle Tickets

If you have Fun Monday stubs for tickets you've sold and would like to turn them in at the July 11 meeting, I'll be happy to accept them along with your money. I still have about 40 tickets that can be sold if you would like more. I will need all outstanding ticket stubs and money collected at the August 1 meeting.

Chicken Pickin'

If you were at our June meeting, you know that I announced that Pat Hensley and Laurie Schwartz have volunteered to chair the 2027 Party. As a reminder, the theme will be Wild West. The theme was chosen by a vote of the members who were present that evening.

Pat and Laurie have met and have co-chairs for the sub-committees all assigned. Be on the lookout, in the near future, for the brochure and t-shirt order form. Stella has submitted the artwork to the company that finalizes the design and does the printing. Be prepared to be approached by committee members to participate filling in at the party with various assignments.

More to come!

Fish Fry

Our annual Fish Fry will be at our September meeting, 9/5. As always, members who attend will be treated to the complementary fish meal and free beer and wine. You will need to sign up, so that the board can provide an accurate number so that everyone will have enough to eat. If you have special dietary requirements, please supply that on the sign-up sheet. This will ensure that those who have special dietary requirements will have a delicious meal, also. We are aware that there are a few of our members who may bring one guest who is not a member of LNSC. If you plan to invite someone, the cost for their meal will be $30.00.

Fall SOS Pour Party

Debbie will have the signup sheets for Registration, Runners and Pourers at the meeting in July, August and at the Fish Fry in September. If you are attending Fall Migration and are planning to attend the Pour Party, please consider volunteering 30 minutes of your time to cover one (or more) of these responsibilities. Guest cost will again be $20.00. You may invite as many as you want but each guest will have to pay the cost. Be sure that your guests will need to provide your name, as you are sponsoring them. This ensures that we are truly treating our guests.

Other Announcements

The charitable donations from some of the profits from the 2026 Chicken Pickin' will be distributed this month. The charities that we will be donating to will be SOS Foundation, East Lincoln Christian Ministries; Lincoln County Coalition against Child Abuse and Child Advocacy.

CHICKEN PICKIN' - 2027 UPDATE

2027 Wild West Chicken Pickin' plans are in the works. We have all the Committee Chairs in place and the flyer is being worked on. Laurie and I had our first meeting on June 17th. Once the flyer is completed, we will schedule a meeting with the Committee Co Chairs and Board members.

We are looking forward to a great Wild West Chicken Pickin'!!!

In Memory of Junior Little

I met Junior in 1954 or 1955 at Cornelius Elementary School. Junior and I went through elementary, junior high, and high school together. Since we were both from Cornelius and small in size, we seemed to have a natural connection. When we were sophomores at North Mecklenburg, we were not big enough to play school football—we both weighed less than 100 pounds. Instead, we played pickup football at the elementary school. One day, I tried to run over Junior, and it did not go well. Long story short, I broke my collarbone. That was the end of football for me.

Later in life, we both had 1956 Chevrolets, so naturally we had to find out whose car was faster. We raced several times until someone told our parents. When my dad asked me about racing, I admitted I was guilty. When Junior's dad questioned him, he said, "No, Daddy." He was caught. LOL. Needless to say, that was the last time we raced.

After high school, Junior joined the Army and I went to work at UPS. We both got married. Junior and Sarah were godparents to our children, and we were godparents to theirs.

Junior later joined me at UPS for several years before deciding to work in the truck parts business.

Junior was an avid golfer, and we played many rounds together. In 1983, we formed the Lake Norman Shag Club. We enjoyed many good times dancing and partying, and that same year we went to SOS together for the first time. We continued going two or three times a year for many years. Sarah was one of the main reasons the club moved its Chicken Pickin' to the beach after we lost our party place at Lake Norman and needed somewhere new to gather. We first went to Ducks, but after two years, it was not working out, so we moved to the OD Arcade, where our club still holds its party. One year, Junior even painted the wine glasses for the event.

In the years that followed, Junior and Sarah moved to the beach, where Junior enjoyed playing golf and fishing. Wanda and I played golf with them many times, both at the beach and at Cowan's Ford.

Even after they moved to the beach, we stayed in touch. We visited them in April when we were at SOS. So glad we made the effort to go. Jeff and Pam Bundy joined us for that visit. Junior was always upbeat and had a great sense of humor, which he kept until the end.

He will be missed by many. Thank you, Junior, for being a good friend, a great husband, and a loving father. Rest in peace, my friend.

Fall Migration T-Shirt Design Contest 2026

Well, it is that time of year that we need to start thinking about our 2026 SOS Fall Migration collectable T shirt design. This competition is open to anyone. We would like to have a design that encapsulates our dance, music, and our shag lifestyle that we all enjoy and live for. All submissions become the property of SOS and should be submitted in a digital format. All submissions should be sent to "soscompanystore@yahoo.com" with a deadline of July 31, 2026. At the deadline time we will take all submissions and add them to what was submitted for the 2026 Spring edition and select from all those submissions. We will let the winner know which design was selected. The winner will receive two 2027 SOS membership cards, two of the featured T shirts and the artist's name on the T shirt design. We look forward to seeing the artistic imagination of our artists. Thank you in advance for your entries. Good Luck!!

Keep "Living The ShagLife" & Have a Great day,
Dwayne Baggett, SOS Vice-President
